This writ petition is totally devoid of merit. The order under challenge does not suffer from any legal infirmities so as to call for any interference by this Court.

The I.D.No.369 of 1992 dated 19.4.2000 was dismissed on the ground that the petitioner was not evincing any interest at all for more than one year. Thereafter, after lapse of three years, the present I.A.No.165 of 2003 in I.D.No.369 of 1992 is filed. Therefore, the 2nd respondent passed appropriate orders and the orders under challenge do not suffer from any legal infirmities so as to call for any interference by this Court.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
